

CLASSIC CITY WOODTURNERS
Minutes from Meeting
May 23, 2011

I. Greeting and Introduction

- A. One visitor recognized
- B. No new members recognized

II. Old Business

A. President Grant recognized Bill Gohdes, Walter McCrae, and Lynn Reece for their participation in the Sheep to Shawl Festival in Bogart, GA.

B. President Grant recognized Bill Gohdes, Chris Cruikshank, Rex McGough, Jim Alberts for participation in the Winterville Marigold Festival on Saturday, May 21st. Dr. Grant also participated in that event. Several people who visited the CCW demonstration at both events expressed interest in joining the club.

III. New Business

A. President Grant reported on the upcoming club demonstration scheduled for the remainder of the year. They are:

June – Jerry Chandler: Beyond the basic Box (Inlays on sides and lid.)

July – Leigh Brookes: Carving on turned pieces. Leigh learned this technique from Dixie Briggs.

August – Mike Peace: Mike will demonstrate techniques for turning winged boxes.

September – Nick Cook: Nick will as usual cover several topics and tentatively has scheduled a demonstration on turning platters.

October – Steve Mellott: Steve will demonstrate hollowing small viessels with a hand-held hollowing tool.

November – To be determined

December – Annual Christmas party at St. James Methodist Church

IV. Demonstration: Our demonstrator for the May 23rd meeting was Jack Morse who demonstrated the turning of a green wood cherry vessel.

Respectfully submitted,

Bill Gohdes, Secretary