

CLASSIC CITY WOODTURNERS
Minutes from Meeting
September 25, 2011

I. Greeting and Introduction

- A. President Grant called the business meeting to order at 6:15 p.m
- B. President Grant introduced no new members; two visitors, David Lane and Rick Martin attended.
- C. Ron Leuthner, CCW Treasurer, reported there is $1390.20 in the checking account.

II. Old Business

- A. President Grant announced meeting dates for the remainder of 2011:
 - 1. October meeting – CCW will meet on October 24 rather than October 31 to avoid conflict with Halloween. Steve Mallot will demonstrate turning small hollow forms.
 - 2. November meeting – Jerry Chandler, who had to reschedule from a previous meeting after suffering a finger injury, will demonstrate turning a variety of Christmas gifts.
 - 3. December 12 – Christmas Party at St. James (thanks Jim Talley for making arrangements) at which time the club will conduct a “big” raffle but no silent auction as was done in the past.
- B. Nominating Committee: Jim Underwood has graciously consented to chair the nominating committee for 2012 officer election; Mike Hollis and Dr. Bob Nix will also serve.

III. New Business – No New Business items were offered.

IV. Show and Tell – Mike Hollis assisted with show and tell.

V. Demonstration: Our demonstrator for the September meeting was Nick Cook who demonstrated turning an Ash wood platter and creating a salt shaker that required no vendor purchased hardware. Nick announced that Dixie Biggs would be in attendance at the Woodcraft Store on Saturday and Sunday, October 1 & 2; The Marietta Museum of Art was presenting a display on the Southern Legacy of Woodturning; the 2013 AAW National Symposium will be conducted in Atlanta

Respectfully submitted,

Bill Gohdes, Secretary
