

Members Gallery-May 2007

A very nice bowl turned from mesquite by Jim Underwood

An attractive walnut candle holder embellished with inlays turned by Frank Lether

A classic maple bowl turned by Frank Lether and finished using Pearl Ex gold pigment

A beautiful vase turned from a redwood cone by Roy Grant

A stylish lidded box turned from ambrosia maple by Michael Hollis with inlaid jasper stone and black painted base and finial

A distinctive cherry bowl turned by Bob Nix

An attractive black gum natural edge bowl turned by Michael Hollis

A uniquely shaped bowl turned by Steve Johnson from spalted red maple

An interesting natural edge bowl turned by Steve Doster from big leaf maple

A remarkable marine sculpture with turned walnut base created by Ken Calkin

Pictures courtesy of Jim Underwood