

MEMBERS GALLERY- October 2009

A nicely shaped natural edge bowl turned by Dean Brady

An attractive box turned from segmented pine by Dean Brady

A meat tenderizer hammer turned from walnut and alder by Dean Brady

A nice lidded box turned by Dean Brady from dogwood and alder

A classic bowl turned from antique heart pine by Dean Brady

A beautiful lidded bow with a glass insert turned by Frank Lether from walnut

Two very nice bottle stoppers turned by Bill Van Wie

A very attractive tru-stone pen turned by Bill Van Wie

A unique candle holder turned from red maple by Don Fournier

A stunning hollow form turned from apple and colored with epoxy by Jim Talley

An candle holder turned off-center from purple heart by Jim Talley

A very nice hollow form turned from red oak by Roy Grant